Retro Cassette Cover for iPhone 3G

RETCASCOV

Go back to the future with the fantastic iPhone cover that looks like an old cassette.

This brilliant, retro-tastic, uber realistic Retro Cassette iPhone cover will have you re-living your youth while protecting your handset from bangs, scrapes and dust.

The fantastic silicon cover is designed to look exactly like an old audio cassette, complete with its own case. However, instead of holding a compilation mix of all your favourite back in the day tunes, this cassette gives complete protection to your iPhone (which probably already contains all your favourite back in the day tunes).

But wait, there's more - not only does this perfectly fitting cover keep your handset safe, the cassette case - when fully opened - also turns into an ideal stand for your phone.

This is the perfect gift for fans of the latest cool, quirky gadget, or for that iPhone owner who wants a memento of his/her youth.
